Out of Sight ... Out of Murder

by Fred Carmichael

Peter Knight (Gus Nichols) is grinding out a murder story in a dreary old Vermont mansion where another author was murdered years earlier. A weird electrical storm causes a cosmic event and our hero's characters come to life.

They're all there – Kay Kelsey, the lovely ingenue (Hannah Blair White); Cogburn, the trusty butler (Seymour Cresswell); Fiona Babcock, the acerbic old spinster (Madelyn Chapman); Minna, a feisty neighbour (Phil Stokes); Dick Stanton, our dauntless juvenile hero (Michael Fogarty); Lydia Dillingham, the 'other woman' (Brenda Donoghue); Addie, the always pregnant serving girl (Amy Van Der Linde); and Jordan Dillingham, the wily lawyer (Michael Stokes) waiting for midnight to read the will.

Not surprisingly, Peter loses control and murders follow to a hair-raising climax. But of course, the mysteries are solved with ingenuity, wit, romance and lots of laughs.
